INDEX OF TOWNS. &c.,

SHOWING EVERY RAILWAY STATION UPON THE CONTINENT OF EUROPE.

NOTE.—For convenience of reference, the Guide is divided into two parts, viz., Tabular and Descriptive. In the following Index the Traveller will find no difficulty in ascertaining which portion is reterred to, by recollecting that the Tables end at page 138, and the Descriptive matter begins at page 148, consequently all below 138 refer to the Time Tables, all above 248 to the Descriptions.

Towns in connection with SteamSallings (see page 180) (and Diligences (see page 213) are omitted in this Index, as they appear in their respective places in the Guide, in Alphabetical Order, see Contents, descriptions of places in teates, thus, Alexandria will be found in the Special Edition only.

To avoid multiplying figures in this Index, the route in connection with each town is only given once, the Return Journey will, in many cases, be found on the following page ---

TO TRAVELLERS.

Tousists who make use of this Guide, and may find any inaccuracies therein, are earnestly requested to communicate personally at Bradshaw's Guide Office, 59, Fleet street, London, (L.C.) or by letter with the Editor, (addressed—To the Editor of Bradshaw's Continental Railway Guide, Printing Office, Newton, near Warrington, Lancashise,) on their return to England; or, should they be permanently resident abroad, to do so through friends in this country, in the course of their regular correspondence, requesting such friends to communicate with the iditor. would also oblige by forwarding in like manner any suggestions as to economy in travelling, interesting and cheap tours, detours, &c., that they may think useful.

We have introduced at the end of the special Edition, as few leaves of writing-paper, which we think will be useful to travellers for putting down stuy remarks and notes; and if tourists would put them under cover, and direct to our office, we shall feel obliged.

Couriers.—Families or Gentlemen going abroad, who can afford the expense of a Courier, should never leave London without one Their services are invaluable in relieving the traveller or "Pater Families," from a multiplicity of cares and troubles respecting Parsports, Examination and Conveyance of Luggage, in securing the best of accommodation, payment of Ferus and Bills, in protecting the traveller from impossition, and an infinity of annoyances to which they are exposed in various parts of the Continent. It is, however, highly necessary not to engage a person as Courier, unless his testimonuals and certificates are of the best description, and of recent date. The safest plan is to apply to the Secretary of the General Couriers Secrety, 12, Bury-Street, St James & London, or of Mr. W J. Adams, 59, Fleet Street, London, as the Couriers recommended by those gouldenen are competent and trustworthy - &d.

AFECIAL EDITION of the CONTINENTAL Grids is now issued, containing an additional amount of information, together with therty-one Maps, price 3s. od. (per post, 4s)

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Wa shall feel much obliged to those Gentlemen who favour us with any information for the Guide, if they would be kind enough to attach their names and addresses to such information for the Guide, if they would be kind enough to attach their names and addresses to such information, is a guarantee of the correctness of the same, and thus enable as to acknowledge the receipt of such some mications by private letter. We cannot attend to anonymous communications, in the middle of the month, and after the usual monthly issues of the Guide, we bug to recommend Traffliers to compare our Time Tables with the Local Time Billate be spendig simplification.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTINENTAL TRAVELLERS.

Soap.— Travellers should provide themselves with this useful article before proceeding to the Continent (which can be had of W. J. Adams, 59, Fleet Street); if they fall so to do, they will find this form a serious item in their hotel bills, soap being a rare article in Continental Hotels, and, if supplied to travellers, is always charged.

Press and Eit.—The following ought to be sufficient:—A carpet-bag with coat-case at bettom, a plain morning coat of black cloth, with grey or tweed trousers, and light vest, six chirts, the same number of pairs of socks, two neek and six pocket handkerchiegh, one pair of botz oft, another on; (clastic ki.i dress-boots pack best,) and a pair of slippers, is the most complete kit necessary. All the rest is more bother than worth. A useful addition to the traveller's outfit can be made in the form of a bottle of Rimmel's Vinegar and other Teuler requisites. See advertisement.

The following outfit for pedestrians is recommended:-

Strong tweed coat and waistcoat. Finnel trousers. Double soled boots. One Finnel shirt on, one off. One pair of Kid shoes, which pack quite fiel without cutting. Half-a-dozen white collars. One pair woollen socks on, one pair in knapsack. One pair tweed trousers. Two pairs cotto socks. One pair of slippers. One neck tie. Portable dressing case to hold comb, razor, and tooth brush. Water-two falk coat, which strans on outside of knapsack.

Shoes or Laced Boots.—These should be double-soled, with three rows of hob-nails, and without iron heels, which are dangerous, and fiable to slip in walking over rocks. Good Shoes may always be obtained in Switzerland fit for mountain excurrious, and they should be kept in constant repair. The waiters at the Swits Inns will attend to all commissions of this sort.

Stockings.—Woollen are preferable to cutton; the latter cut the feet in a long walk. Worsted stock, or cotton stockings with worsted feet, are decidedly the best.

Gaiters are useful in wet weather to keep the socks clean; they also prevent small stones from falling into the shoes

Exampsacks.—Tourists should provide themselves with a drab Magaztosh Knapsack, which is lighter and more convenient than any that can be bought abroad, and can be obtained from our Agent, W. J. Adams, 59, Fleet Street.

Portmanteaus are better purchased in England, than any where else. The dimensions allowed in the French Malle Poste are 27 inches in length, 15 in breadth, and 15 in height.

Polygiot Washing Books of all languages, will be found useful, and can be obtained of W. J. Adams, 55, Fleet-St., London, price Is. each, post free, Is.Id. Family Washing Books can be had, price Is. 6d. Washing can be done at any of the Hotels during the night whilst the traveller fis in field. In ordering these those, if is necessary to state the language required, and if for a lidy or gentlement.

Blue or Black Glams Spectacles, to screen the eyes from the glow of the sun in southern dimetes, and the dust and cinders whilst riding in the railway serriage.

Purses.—A stout leathern purse or convex bag, to half-after or over places and dollars, cards, or places of parchasen for writing directions for leggings, its lating necessary mainly times to address every package,) and one or two leather strape, to help together small parcels, will be found very machi-

Writing-cane. Portable writing and director cause att. Better photomed in England.

Valibrella. —A strong estimantial convention will inhurance walking saids, is the best Meshething Tape. ... A wheel tope (which Travell) will be from made.

Passports .-- A Foreign Office passport, the price of which is now reduced to 2s., and which can be obtained through our Agent, W. J. Adams, 59, Fleet Street. It is a general passport for every country, and continues valid for an indefinite period, the visas only requiring to be renewed according to the respective regulations For full particulars see pages xxxiii to xxxviii. N.B.-Always carry your Passport in your pocket.

AMERICAN TRAVELLERS.—American Travellers intending to visit Austria, by way of

Dresden and Prague, must have their Passports visé by an Austrian and American Ambassador or Consuls at London, Berlin, or Frankfort, or in some other town where an American representative resides.

Landing on the Continent.—No sooner does the steam boat reach port, than the traveller ands himself pestered by discordant cries dinned into his ears by the porters and employes of the different Hotels. Showers of cards will be poured on him, and the prices charged bawled out lustily. To avoid all this as much as may be, let him determine on his Hotel beforehand, and name it at once, when the agent for it will immediately step forward, and take the new arrival under his protection, and escort him

Gustom-house Regulations .- Passengers, on landing, are not permitted to take their baggage with them on shore. The Custom-House Porters, who are responsible for its safety, convey it direct from the vessel to the Custom-House, where the owner, to save personal attendance, had better send the Commissionaire afterwards with the keys. The Commissionaire will also obtain the necessary efficial signature of the police to the traveller's passport. The landlord of the ign is responsible for his honestv.

Nowhere are courtesy and good humour better repaid than during the examination of your baggage. Never be in a hurry; collect your packages and open them one by one yourself, lock one before the next is "visited." The officers are only doing their duty, and can make that duty very disagreeable in return for any hanteur or want of courtesy. Always "declare" any article you believe liable to duty, and remember that every Custom House Officer abroad can search your person if he chooses.

CAUTION.—Silks, lace, and other foreign goods, packed with articles of apparel, or otherwise concealed, are, as well as the articles in which they may be placed, liable to seizure; and traveliers are warned that the scizure is strictly enforced unless the examining officer is informed of the articles being in the package and the goods duly declared previously to its being opened.

Hotels.—It is not necessary, in travelling on the continent, for a gentleman and his wife (supposing they wish to live with economy) to take a sitting-room as well as a bed-room, as is the custom in British Hotels. On arrival at an Hotel abroad, state what sort of a bed-room you wish to have, and go and choose it at once: as a general rule, the higher you ascend, the less you pay. You may drink tea there, if you like, and you always dine in the public rooms, when there will be plenty of ladies to support you. The neat little beds have silk coverlets thrown on them during the day, and the washing apparatus is made for concealment; and you may receive visitors in your sleeping apartment as well as in a drawing room. If you require no more than two wax candles, tell them not to light the others, otherwise they will be charged in the bill.

KEY.—Always lock your door on leaving your room, and if going for walk, hang the key on the number of your room, on the key board. The Landlord is then (and then only,) responsible for the safety of your room, and visitors learn more casily that you are out.

To ensure being called in proper time, mark the hour against the number of your room on the siste.

or hoard always provided for this.

FREE TO WAITERS. - In most cases the "Service" is added to the bill; otherwise one franc, (or shout that amount in other money,) per head,) (adults) per day, is liberal for all the servants, and is paid to the Headwalter "for Service." The Porter, who is Bouts, may expect a small fee in proportion to the

. In sage and trouble given.

Luggage.—This should be as limited in amount, as light, and as portable as possible. For a gentleman, a short and deep portmanteau, strengthened to resist the pressure of heavier packages, will be most convenient, and can be conveyed by any of the continental conveyances. The name and blace of destination should be distinctly written on the cover. But, as in many instances, parties can see travel without carrying with them a large quantity of because in many instances, parties can sec travel without carrying with them a large quantity of baggage, we recommend them to send it on the transit per Luggage Train, as by this conveyance a considerable saving is effected. Forterage of Luggage.—Travellers will save themselves much trouble and many overcharges be always asking the proprietor of the hold to which they go, to estile with the porter for ingage.

which can always be procured in the neighbourhood, are also of considerable service. The best resterative is tea, and it can be procured good in Holland, and in most of the large towns of Germany, Provisions should also be conveyed in a knapsack or haversack, of which the Guide will take charge, and the contents of which he will expect to share. The traveller should never lose sight of his Guides as he may frequently be in considerable danger without being aware of it, especially in the neighbourhood of glaciers. Persons subject to gliddiness, should be cautions of venturing into certain situations. Travellers visiting the glacier passes will find great comfort derived from the use of Glycerine, as a substitute for greate of any kind, applied to the exposed parts of the face, previous to, or during an excursion on the ice. It should be applied before starting, and a small bottle (say a drachm) carried in the pocket, from which the lips may be anointed from time to time during the day, after drinking. This will prevent the painful excortation from which some persons suffer so much. It is also efficacious as a cure, but prevention is better. A half-ounce bottle will last many days. Price & Co.'s Glycerine is the best.

Climates and Mineral Springs.—For detailed information on these subjects, see Dr. Lee's Works, published by W. J. Adams, 59, Fleet Street, London.

Fees at Churches, Galleries, &c .- One franc, or about that value, is sufficient for a party, except in cases where the galleries are not usually shown to travellers.

Language.—Every travellershould, if possible, make himself acquainted with the language of the country, before he goes to travel in it; even a very slight knowledge of it will often be found useful. To know the language is to have a double purse. The French language will quifice for Belgium, the Rhine and its vicinity, Switzerland, Piedmont, and the chief towns of Northern Italy. It is not generally known in the German States, nor in the provincial towns of Italy, nor in the Tyrol. In Holland, and many parts of Germany, English is more generally understood than French. Parties not speaking the language, and employing an interpreter, should be particular in their arrangement with him as to the amount of remuneration.—For vocabulary of common words and phrases, see pages 470 to 476 Special Edition.

Letters.-Attention to the Notice at p xxxi. respecting Letters is recommended. It is however always safest to direct letters (paid) to the care of a Banker or even an Hotel. It is hardly possible to appreciate the difficulties of Foreign Post Offices in deciphering English names.

German Railways .- The Second Class carriages on the German Railways are much superior te our own, and few persons travel first class.

Prussian Railways.—The Express Trains only take 1st and 2nd class passengers. Children. two under ten years of age travel with one full ticket, one can take a 2nd class ticket and travel 1st class, or a third class and travel 2nd class. Children pay full price in 3rd class.

Austrian Railways.—Passengers having taken 2nd class tickets and wishing to change for the ist class, can do so upon paying half the 3rd class price. To change from the 3rd class to the 1st class, the entire 2nd class must be paid, and from the 3rd to the 2nd half that price. Children under 10 years pay half price. Those under two years are conveyed free. Horses, 50 krs. per mile for one horse, 1 fl. 10 krs. for two; 30 krs. for all others. Dogs are conveyed for 3 krs. per mile. Waiting-rooms are open an hour before the departure of each train, travellers must be provided with a ticket before being allowed to enter the Waiting-room. Smoking is not allowed in the Waiting-rooms or in the Carriages, except in the 3rd class carriages and the "Rauch Kabinet."

Expenses Money.—It is difficult to calculate the exact expense of travelling on the Continent. That depends more or less on the habits and means of the traveller and his mode of journeying, and likewise on the rate of charges made in the various countries. It may, however, be Journeying, and neewise on the rate of charges made in the various countries. It may, however, be remarked that, unless the expenditure be very lavish, 20s. per day for each individual ought to cover all expenses—even when travelling by post. Pedestrian excursions in remote situations can hardly exceed 5s. per day, exclusive of Guides when necessary. The chief expense arises from locomotion, Hotel living being almost insignificant. The cost of locomotion will be greatly increased when the traveller proceeds quickly. The above amount will be very probably near the mark when the tourist journeys 70 or 80 miles a day, if only 40 or 50 miles, the expenses, then, are not likely to be more than 15e per day.

Circular notes will be found the most economical and safest mode of carrying money on the Continent to meet expenses. For particulars, see pages xxxix.

English Bank Notes are convenient in Belgium and in all parts of Germany, but the exchange is lower than that of the Circular Notes. A small supply of English gold should be taken to defray steam-boat expenses, as also to provide against shortebmings where Circular Notes cannot be exchanged. English soversigns ought to be taken at all the hotels at their full value, but the best course to adopt is to apply to some suffortised money-changer when the traveller requires to change them, and not at finis or Hotels. The value of Napoleons, sovereigns, and 10-guilder pieces, are liable to be depreciated by steam-boat elerks and waiters, who presume upon the traveller's ignorance.

Travellers should be provided with the legal coin of the country they travel in, and not take more than is necessary to defray their expenses whilst in it, as almost every state has a distinct coinage. This course prevents all danger of loss. In all their transactions with Hotel Proprietors, Coach Officials, &c., they should have a distinct arrangement, in presence of witnesses, before availing themselves of any accommodation or service: At hotels and ines through the journey, the Bill of Fare should be called for, and see, and the prices occurred successful. This course, if followed, will prevent much after unpleasantless and preserve the traveller against imposition.

Tisoplismedus. A small pocket compass will be found useful, especially to pedestrians.

Thermometer.-Reasmur's thermometer is generally used on the Continent. To comvert degrees of Reaumer into Fahrenheit, above freezing-point, multiply by 24 and add 32; below, multiply by 24 and subtract from 32; thus-

Practical Information for Travellers in France.

Travellers landing at Calais, and intending to proceed immediately to Paris, may avoid an inspection of their baggage till they reach Paris, by making a declaration to that effect at the Custom-house. Travellers proceeding THROUGH FRANCE to Belgium direct, will avoid examination by the French Custom-house authorities by making a similar declaration as to their destination.

The Traveller upon his arrival at Boulogue, Calais, or other French port, is not allowed to take any luggage on shore with him save a small parcel; but if he arrives at night, he is allowed his carpet bag.- His baggage is removed to the Custom-house for the purpose of being examined, after which he may clear it himself if he thinks fit, but it is usual to employ a commissioner, who is entitled to receive for his trouble only that which he had previously agreed for.—No traveller can be charged anything for his luggage beyond the following sums, which include the expenses of landing, warehousing, and conveying to any part of the town.

Norrex -All articles not being wonn, such as wearing apparel, must be declared at the Custome Travellers not conforming to this regulation, would incur not only the confiscation of the articles not declared, but also the payment of a fine.

IN TAKING FURNISHED APARTMENTS, the stranger should have a written agreement, with an inven tory, signed by both parties, containing a precise account of the furniture, even to a plate. He must also have a stipulation therein that the landlord pays the furniture tax, which is levied in October and April, oth rivise the party will have to pay, notwithstanding the furniture is the property of the landlord.

RENTING Houses .- All rent is paid in advance quarterly, but if a house is rented for a term, the fenant cannot remove his goods therefrom until he has paid the entire rent to the landlord, of this whole SERVANTS in France are engaged by the month: masters possess the right of discharging their egrants when they think proper, according to a regulation established by the Jose par Pass, and a cha leave their places when they like; but in this case they are only paid by the day.

SUMMER Visites are not subject to the payment of taxes; personal and furniture inxacting and you foreigners who are residents at the time the annual lists are revised in October and April.

Cananages are hired at the rate of two france per hour, and, if the journey is ever so short, at two france is expected unless an agreement to the contrary is made beforehand. oca. -The owners have to pay a tax of 12 france each per annum.

ENGLISH FORTAGE STARRS COURT for nothing in the French Post-Office.

Frankryens Dakaar.-At Boulogne and Calais, Permits can be had one hour before the departure of each same, or from 1 to 28 ms. preceding the night of departure of the packet, when it starts between the straight at five in the morning. If the passenger with his permit goes on board from ten to derive o'dieth, or one parture of the packet, when the morning.

PASSENGES PROCEEDING TO ENGLAND will be allowed to bring with them any quantity of spirits less than a pint, and half a pint of Eau de Cologné, free of duty. Travellers, however, should bear its mind, that if articles liable to duty are contained among their luggage, they must make declaration of such at the French or English Custom-house; which will avoid forfeiture or other subsequent unpleasantness. Letters for posting found among passengers' baggage at the French or English Custom-houses, tablet the sender and bearer to penal consequences at the instance of the authorities of both countries.

POSTE RESTANTE.

Important.—Letters for the Continent should be addressed very legibly, particularly the Christian and Surname which should be underlined, omitting "Esquire" or other title. As the Officers of Foreign Post Offices experience great difficulty on reading English writing, and especially from the pronunciation of English names, persons applying for letters should present their cards or their names written plainly. Example.—

POST-OFFICE REGULATIONS BETWEEN ENGLAND AND THE CONTINENT.

Foreign and Ship Letter Mails made up in London.—Letters for the Foreign Mails era received at St. Martin's-le-Grand and Lombard-street, up to six o'clock; from six till seven, on payment of one penny extra; and from seven till half-past seven, on payment of sixpence extra but not at all after that time.

Under the new arrangement many kinds of books and other printed matter, which have hitherto been liable to the letter rate of postage, will be forwarded at a greatly reduced charge; and as the charges on newspapers and other periodical literature levied on delivery in France have, in most instances, been much greater than that now to be paid in advance, a considerable reduction of postage will be made in their case also.

The charge for a Packet of Printed Papers other than British Newspapers, duly registered at the General Post Office for transmission abroad; not exceeding 4 onnecs, 3d.; above 4 onnecs, and not exceeding § 1b., 6d.; above § 1b., and not exceeding § 1b. 1s.; above § 1b., and not exceeding § 1b. 1s. 6d.; above § 1b., and not exceeding § 1bs. 2s.; and so on, adding two pence or sixpence, as the case may be, for each additional half-pound.

No bound books can be forwarded to or from France except at letter postage rate, and this remark is equally applicable to autograph MSS., and also to printed books which have appended to them any corrections for fresh editions. Travellers are advised to send such per railway, taking care that the packet weighs above 21bs, else he will be liable to a fine of 500fr. A statement of its contents must be delivered at the Railway office with the packet.

be delivered at the Railway office with the packet.

The same rates of postage must be paid in advance upon newspapers and other printed papers addressed to any of the following countries and places, the correspondence for which is forwarded, as a till, through France; viz., Baden, Bavaria, Greece, Lucca, Majorca, Minorca, Modena, the Papal States, Parms, Placentia, Sardinia, Two Sicilies, Spain, Switzerland, Syria, Tripoli, Tunia, Tuscany, Venetian Lombardy, and Wurtenberg, or addressed to any other foreign country, and specially directed to be forwarded "via France."

On this class of printed papers the rate paid in this country will cover the whole charge, either to the extreme frontier of France, or to the port of disembarkation, if they are conveyed from France by one of the French Mediterrancan Packets.

Opon Newspapers addressed to the Ionian Islands, specially directed to be sent via France, and upon Mayspapers for Malta, specially directed to be sent "by French Packet via Marseilles," the same rates of nostage must also be paid in advance; but printed papers other than newspapers, addressed to the Ionian siands and Malta, will not be sent at a reduced rate of postage by way of France. They may, however be forwarded via Southampton under the Colonial Book Post Regulations.

The following is a list of the places in Turkey, Syria, and Egypt, at which France maintains Post Offices; viz., Alexandria, Jaffa, Beyrout, Tripoli in Syria, Latakia, Alexandretta, Mersina, Rhodes, Smyrna, Mytelene, Dardanelles, Gallipoli, and Constantinople.

All newspapers to be forwarded at the lower of the two rates mentioned above, must be posted within fifteen days from the date of publication; but newspapers of an older date may be forwarded at the rate set down for ordinary printed papers. If any printed paper, not a newspaper, be enclosed in the same packet with one or more newspapers, the whole will be chargeable at the higher of the two ates of postage.

Under the term "Printed Papers" are included periodical works other than registered newspapers stitched or bound books, pamphlots, sheets of music, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and totices of every kind, whether printed, engraved, or lithographed.

The following regulations must be strictly observed:

1. Every packet must be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides.

2. There must be no enclosure, except newspapers or other printed papers.

3. There must be no other writing or marks upon the newspapers or printed papers than the name and address of the person to whom they are sent, nor anything upon the cover but such name and adress, the printed title of the papers, and the printed name and address of the publisher or yendor who ends them.

If any of the above regulations be disregarded, or if the whole postage be not paid in advance, the ackets will either be detained, or forwarded charged as unpaid letters.

Newspapers addressed to the Mediterranean or the East Indies, and intended to be sent in the losed mails by way of Marseilles will continue liable to the existing regulations, including the present ates of postage.

April 21, 1858.

Motice is hereby given that in order to facilitate still further the obtaining of Passports by British aphjects desiring to proceed to the Continent, Passports will henceforth be issued to any British subject who shall produce or send to the Passport Department of the Foreign-office, or to any one of the undermentioned agents at the outports, a certificate of his identity, signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom. Every such certificate must bear the signature of the person on whose behalf it is granted; and when it is forwarded to the Foreign-office by post it must,—if it be required that the Passport should be sent by return of post to the person who granted the certificate, in order that he may deliver it to the applicant for the Passport,—be accompanied by a post-office order for the amount of the fee; or if forwarded by post to an agent at an outport, the postage must be propaid. But an agent at an outport will only deliver Passports to persons applying for them there in pursuance of such certificate, and will not send them by post to any persons whatever. The application for the Passport if addressed to "Her Majesty's Secretary of State, Foreign-office, London," should have the word "Passport" conspicuously written upon the cover. The names of the agents who have been appointed to issue Foreign-office passports at the undermentioned ports, are:-

Birmingham, George A. Everett Esq.; Dover, Sannel Metcalfe Latham, Esq.; Devenport. Thomas II. Hawker, Esq.; Folkestone, Francis M. Faulkner, Esq.; Hull, John England, Esq.; Liverpool, Nathan Litherland, Esq.; Lowestoft, B. M. Bradbeer, Esq.; Manchester, ——; Newcastic-on-Tyne, Edward Glyn, Esq.; Newhaven, II. G. Turner, Esq.; Southampton, W. G. Le Feuvre, Esq.; Weymouth, Richard

Hare, Esq.; Dublin, L. H. Deering, Esq.

It will save time by addressing Certificates of Identity &c., to the CHIEF CLERK, Foreign Office, London, (instead of Her Majesty's Secretary of State), with the word Passrout conspicuously written mpon the cover.

CERTIFICATES of IDENTITY should be worded in the following form, and must be signed and sealed by the person giving it, and also by the person in whose favour it is granted-

> (Date of place, and day of the month.) The Undersigned, -Mayor of Magistrate for Justice of the Peace or Minister Physician Surgeon Solicitor Notary hereby certifies that A. B. (Christian and surname to be written at length), whose signature is written at foot, is a British subject, (or a naturalized British subject.) and requires a Passport to enable him to proceed to to travel on the Continent accompanied (as the case may be, by his wife and children, with their tutor, named C. D. (Christian and surname to be written at length), a British subject a naturalized British subject. and gorerness, and maidservant [or servants], and manservant [or servants], named E. F., a British subject [or subjects], and a courier, named G. H., a naturalized British subject.

> Signed-(with the usual signature.) (Seal,) Signature of the above named-

If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British Subject, his certificate of Naturalization, with nis signature subscribed to the Oath printed on the third page of it, must be forwarded to the Foreign-office with the certificate of identity granted on his behalf; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the Passport to the person who may have granted the certificate of identity, in order that he may cause such naturalized British subject, not being a servant included in his employer's passport, to sign the passport in his presence. But the agents at the outports are not authorized to grant pusports to naturalized British subjects, nor to citizens of the Ionian States.

Any person whose Certificate of Identity has been received from the country, may obtain their Passpost by calling for it at the Foreign-office on the day following the receipt of the application, either in was or by Deputy, in the latter case exhibiting a signed authority from his Principal, in order that signature may be compared with the signature in the Certificate, but in this case the words "Passe will be applied for at the Foreign-office," must be added to the Certificate of Identity.

. The Form of Application to be used by Banking Establishments will be an heretofore, and is given in a preceding page.

The General Regulations for Passports as now amended are as follows 🔑 "1. Applications for Foreign-office passports must be made in writing, and enclosed in a correct discovery of the Majesty's Secretary of State, Foreign-office, London,' or to an agent at one of the specified outports, with the word 'Passport' conspicuously written on the cover.

"2. The charge on the issue of a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it.

28, which sum includes 64. stamp-duty.

3. Foreign-office passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to citizens of the Ionian States, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament or by a certification. cate of naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a 'naturalized British subject,' he will be so designated in his passport; and if his certificate of naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, his passport will be marked as good for one year only; but this regulation will not proclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at easy future period, on his producing his old passport, a fresh passport for a further limited period of each year, without being required to pay a fresh charge.

4. Passports are issued at the Foreign-office, between the hours of 11 and 4 on the day following that on which the application for the passport has been received at the Foreign-office; but the Fass-port will be issued at the outports immediately on application, accompanied by the production of a Certificate of Identity, within such hours as may be fixed with regard to the convenience of persons desirous of embarking for the Continent.

" 5. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State, or mecommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the application of any banking firm established in London or in any other part of the United Kingdom, or upon the production of a Certificate of Identity, signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom.

"6. Passports cannot be sent by the Foreign-office, or by an agent at an outport, to a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.

"7. Foreign-office passports must be countersigned at the Mission in London, or at some Consulate in the United Kingdom of the Government of the country which the bearer of the passport intends to

8. A Foreign-effice pussport granted to a British-born subject or to a citizen of the Ionian States, or to a 'naturalized British subject' whose certificate of naturalization is dated previously to August 24. 1850, is not limited in point of time, but is available for any time, or for any number of journeys to the to the Continent, if countersigned afresh by the Ministers or Consuls of the countries which the beares intends to visit; but a past-port granted to a "naturalized British subject," whose certificate is dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, is only available for the period for which the past-port was originally granted.

Memoranda to be attended to by Bankers and others sending Letters of Application to the Foreign Office for Passports.

"I .- The application for a Foreign-Office Passport should, for the sake of official convenience, be made on a half-sheet of paper, and be folded in three parts; and it should be either delivered at the Foreign Office, or 'posted' in a stamped cover sufficiently early to insure its being delivered before six o'clock in the afternoon.

"2.-The cover inclosing the application must be sealed with the seal of the Banking Firm, and addressed to Her Majesty's Secretary of State, with the word ' Passport ' conspicuously written upon it *2.—Separate applications are necessary when separate Passports are required; but any number of applications may be inclosed in the same cover.

4.—The name of any particular country or place to which the traveller is proceeding, with the view of residing permanently or for any length of time therein, should be specifically mentioned in tar applica-tion; but when a Passport for travelling on the Continent generally is required, then that object should be so stated.

"5.—The application must state the name or names to be inserted in the Passport: in the case, however, of a gentleman travelling with his wife and family, it is only necessary to give the same or title of the wife when it differs from the name or title of the husband, the number of sons and daughters. respectively, and the number of the women-servants; but the name of each man-servant (w.. omust be a British subject) must be given in full, in order that it may be inserted in the Passport.

[•] It is requisite that the bearer of every passport granted by the Foreign Office should sign his passport before he sends it to be viséd at any Foreign Mission or Consulate in England; withou tench signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. And travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Austrian States at any time in the course of thei itravels on the continent are particularly and earnestly advised not to quit England without having their passports wist at the Austrian Mission in London; but there is no necessity for the vise o cither the Prassian er. Sardinian authorities in the United Kingdom to a Foreign Office passport.

St. Helen Bishopsgate St. Fee for visa, 5s. The strictness respecting Passports is now as great in Holland as in othe states — no one should travel through the Dutch states without one. An examination of Passpor and Luggage takes place at Emmerich, on board the Steamer, ascending and descending the Rhine.

ITALY.—Travellers should pay very particular attention to the manner in which Italian Passpor are managed. Every foreigner, before being permitted to enter the Papal States, is required to have bis passport vise by the Papal Consul, or Nuncio resident in the capital last visited by him; and, if take the French route, much convenience will be the consequence if he procure the visa of the Nuncio Paris, on setting out. If this be impossible, the Papul Consular visa at some important town, a suffice. The Austrian visa is available in Italy for the Venedian States. The Tuscan and Nespoli should be obtained in London. At each town the passport is examined and countersigned, which a fee of two pauls has to be paid; and, in garrison towns, the same formally is obsert on leaving. In sea port towns, the visa of the British Consul is necessary. The traveller, beta quitting Rome on his return, should obtain to his passport the visas of the representatives of various dominions through which he purposes to travel. It travelling from Milan through Geneva, t France, the signatures to his passport of the British, Sardinian, and French Consuls at Milan, will necessary. The Sardinian risa is not now required for the Foreign-Office Passport only to enter or less the Piedmontese States; by this late measure the English traveller is free of the heavy tax of eig francs charged for entering and leaving the State.

LASCIA PASSARE.—Persons journeying in their own private conveyances to Rome should provide t above to be forwarded to the frontier, and also to be left at the Porta del Popolo, as they will the avoid the formalities of the Custom House. This they can do by writing to their bankers of corr pondents. Travellers by public or post-carriages, cannot be permitted this privilege.

FOREIGN MONEY.

Circular Notes of small denomination.—The £5 Circular Notes so much desired if the travelling Public, are now issued (as well as those of £10 each), for the convenience of the travelling to draw a larger sum at each place, payable at all the principal cities and towns on the Cortinent of Europe, and the United States and Canada, as well as Scotland and Ireland, Madeira, &c., be obtained on application at Messrs. Adam Spielmann and Co.'s, Bullion and Banking Office, 79, London States, City.

Circular notes are given by most of the principal London bankers, and form a very safe and conve nient kind of letters of credit. The arrangements for cashing them in the various countries through which the traveller may have to pass are very simple and efficient, precluding almost the possibility of fraud. As a letter of indication is given with them, we would caution tourists to keep the one in their pocket-book and the other in their baggage. The chief houses for transacting this continental business are the Union Bank; Commercial Bank of London; Herries, Farquhar, & Co.; Coutts & Co.; Sir Claude Scott, Bt., Cavendish-square; Twinings; and the London and Westminster Bank; at the Union Bank Twinings, and Westminster Bank, they may be obtained in notes of £10 each; and in sums of £1 and upwards at Adam Spielmann's, 79, Lombard street, (facing King William street), where foreign money may be obtained or exchanged to advantage. The most advantageous continental gold coin that a traveller can take with him in Germany are the Prussian Friedrichs d'Or, as these pass cur rent not only in Holland and Belgium, but also through all Germany. Napoleons are the very best coin, and may be purchased in London from 16s. to 16s. 2d.; they pass everywhere. Sovereigns are not well known in Italy, and are supposed to be pieces of 20 francs. English bank notes for £5 can be changed on the Rhine, and in Paris, Belgium, and the principal towns in Switzerland; but they are no known in other places; and even at Lyons, Florence, and Rome, they will not be taken under any chi cumstances; but they can be exchanged at these places at the Money Changers by paying a heavy per centuge. Prussian dollars, and florins and half florins, are the most serviceable silver coins. It scarcely necessary to hint at the advantage of being always provided with small change in the legal cur rent coin of the country through which the traveller passes, as every exchange entails a consequent los

REGULATIONS

BELGIAN RAILWAYS.

TRAVELLERS should be at the Station not less than ten minutes before the hour of departure, and are requested to provide themselves with the exact amount of their fare, in order to avoid all changing of money, and to facilitate the distribution of tickets.

It is forbidden to lean out of the windows of the carriage, or to leave the train before it has come to a stand.

SMORING is prohibited in the Waiting Rooms, and in the 1st and 2nd Class Carriages, except in the compartments specially reserved for Smokers.

It is forbidded to take into the Carriage a oaded weapon, or any other artissuch a nature as to incommode the cuties passengers. It is also furblidden to open the windows of the Carriage on the side from whence the wind blows, unless by connent of the other passengers.

CHILDREN above 3 years of age, and under 8, pay half fare, those under 3 free. Children above 3 years of age, who are going direct from Belgium to another country, pay full fare.

DOGS are placed in the baggage waggon, and are charged 3rd class fare.

LUGGAGE should be at the Station a quarter of an hour before the departure of the Train. Luggage may be insured by paying a rate of 10 centimes per 100 francs. It is particularly recommended to crass all old direction labels, and to have the address written very legible. Passengers cannot take anything into the carriage with them that weights more than 28 kilogrammes (33 lbs.), and only then, provided it will go under the seat without inconveniencing the other Passengers.

All luggage destined to cross the frontier must, without exception, be deposited at the station of departure, in order that it may be noted and placed in the Custom House Van. This regulation includes Hat Boxes, Dressing Cases, &c., all Luggages, kept in the carriage until arrival at the frontier station, is there re-directed and forwarded to its destination, after the departure of the train, as goods, and must be paid for accordingly.

BRUSSELS AND COLOGNE,

VIA NAMUR, LIEGE, AND AIX-LA-CHAPELLE. GREAT LUXEMBOURG.—Station, Quartier Leopold.

Passing by Namur and the charming scenery of the Meuse, the most beautiful part of Belgium.

Travellers taking this Route can proceed from Namur to Liege by steamer, and thus enjoy a most delightful trip down the Meuse, the scenery being most beautiful and picturesque through the whole of this valley—i.e. the Khine in miniature. Steamers also run between Namur and Dinant, which is one of the sweetest spots on the Continent, and is admirably situated for equivalent on the Ardenney. For further particulars of this route see page 227 to 291.

Remarks,—N.B.—In the Through Transit where Leipzig is only a passing Station, the Station-managements in Leipzig take care of the transfer of Luggage from one Station to another; but passengers must look after their own transfer themselves. Nearly all the Trains call at the various internacillate small Stations on the Line. Direct Telekts are issued to Berling, Station, Ludgas, Kemplers, &c.
